To Whom It May Concern,

Following the overwhelming success of stage productions “Jungua” and “Chi of Shaolin – The Tale of the Dragon”, I approached MPY to create a totally new show for an extended run in 2015. Executive producer Yanyan Zhao traveled to mainland China to hand pick the eight uniquely talented and beautiful acrobats who would become, “The Legend of The Dragon Ladies”

The show is a story of beauty, grace, honor, seduction, power and strength told through this regal band of women. Each possesses the mystical and fierce powers of the dragon and as a group they become an incredibly mesmerizing tour de force. Audiences are instantly amazed with the spellbinding array of acrobatic moves, tricks and magical illusions fused with glamorous and exotic dances. Enhanced by brilliant backdrops, vibrant costumes, dynamic music and stunning lighting, “The Legend of The Dragon Ladies” is a glorious old tale presented with modern expertise.

The show ran for 16 weeks and produced attendance numbers surpassing both “Jungua” and “Chi of Shaolin”. This was yet another example of the highest standard of quality Yanyan is known for. “The Legend of The Dragon Ladies” is a show which delivers on all levels, one I highly recommend.

Respectfully,
